TRADITIONAL BLESSING OF EASTER FOOD

EASTER BLESSING OF FOOD

INTRODUCTORY RITES

For our sake Christ became obedient, accepting even death, death on a cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him the name above all other names. Blessed be God forever.

Blessed be God forever.

Throughout Lent we have been preparing for the resurrection of the Lord by prayer, almsgiving, and fasting. Our Lenten fasting is a reminder of our hunger and thirst for holiness which is satisfied only by Christ who feeds and nourishes us by his word and sacraments. When we gather at our first meal of Easter may this food be a sign for us of that heavenly banquet to which the Lord calls us.

READING OF THE WORD OF GOD

Brothers and sisters, listen to the words of the book of Deuteronomy:

Observe the month of Abib by keeping the Passover of the Lord, your God, since it was in the month of Abib that he brought you by night out of Egypt. You shall offer the Passover sacrifice from your flock or your herd to the Lord, your God, in the place which he chooses as the dwelling place of his name. You shall not eat leavened bread with it. For seven days you shall eat with it only unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, that you may remember as long as you live the day of your departure from the land of Egypt; for in frightened haste you left the land of Egypt. Nothing leavened may be found in all your territory for seven days, and none of the meat which you sacrificed on the evening of the first day shall be kept overnight for the next day. You may not sacrifice the Passover in any of the communities which the Lord, your God, gives you; only at the place which he chooses as the dwelling place of his name, and in the evening at sunset, on the

A anniversary of your departure from Egypt, shall you sacrifice the Passover. You shall cook and eat it at the place the Lord, your God, chooses; then in the morning you may return to your tents. For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh there shall be a solemn meeting in honor of the Lord, your God; on that day you shall not do any sort of work.

A My soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

Athirst is my soul for God, the living god.

P When shall I go and behold the face of God?

My soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

A Those times I recall,

Now that I pour out my soul within me,

When I went with the throng

And led them in procession to the house of God,

P Amid loud cries of joy and thanksgiving,

With the multitude keeping festival.

My soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

A Send forth your light and your fidelity;

They shall lead me on

P And bring me to your holy mountain,

To your dwelling place.

My soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

A Then will I go in to the altar of God,

The God of my gladness and joy;

P Then will I give you thanks upon the harp,

O God, my God!

My soul is thirsting for God, the living God.
